

THE ART OF TAXES: WHAT TO FILL OUT, WHAT TO FILE...

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2010

10:00 a.m – 12:00 noon

MEAD THEATRE LAB AT FLASHPOINT
916 G ST, NW WASHINGTON, DC 20001

If you are planning to apply for artist housing at the Brookland Artspace Lofts (opening in 2011), it is critical to have your taxes filed correctly and timely for the previous two years. Join Artspace Projects local partner Cultural Development Corporation and Certified Public Accountant Brian Davis to learn how to better manage tax season.

This workshop will focus on navigating tax forms, saving on your tax payments and exploring simple tricks to plan for tax time all year long. Don't miss this chance to ask all your questions about filing your 2009 taxes, and learn ways that you can be exceedingly prepared for 2010. Light refreshments will be provided.

- 1099, Schedule C, traditional IRA...what forms do individual artists need to fill out?
- What can you write off? How should you document expenses?
- How does filing your taxes effect your ability to qualify for affordable artist housing?
- How can you plan for tax time all year?

RSVP by Wednesday, February 3, 2010.

Red Circle Members FREE
Non-Members $20.00

email RedCircle@flashpointdc.org

Register Online
Questions about THE ART OF TAXES?
Email redcircle@flashpointdc.org or call 202.315.1321

ABOUT CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

We make space for art. Cultural Development Corporation is a nonprofit organization in Washington, DC that creates space and builds the capacity of artists to prosper within that space. The Flashpoint Business Center program provides workshops, roundtables, discussion forums and one-on-one technical assistance tailored to artists & cultural organizations, as well as affordable office space in the heart of downtown DC.

To find out more about Cultural Development Corporation and sign up for our mailing lists, e-mail emma@culturaldc.org. Please remember to include your first and last name in the body of the email.