Annual Report

2022

A Word From the President

Dear Friends & Supporters,

I am thrilled to present the Artspace Annual Report for 2022, showcasing a year of passion, perseverance, and adaptability that can be seen in the continued collective impact of Artspace across the country.

In a world where critical infrastructure such as affordable housing remains paramount, our commitment to Artspace's mission has been unwavering. Despite the shifting landscape of challenges to the nonprofit housing and commercial real estate development sector, we have remained steadfast in our dedication to providing artists with spaces that nurture their talents and inspire change.

As we navigated 2022's fresh opportunities and new real estate realities, we stood firm in our resolve to stay true to our mission. The 2022 Annual Report is a testament to our collective fortitude, reminding us of the importance of adapting and evolving while remaining anchored in our principles.

I extend my deepest gratitude to all who are playing a part in this journey. Your support and dedication are instrumental in our progress. Together, we continue to redefine the role of art in building resilient and transformative communities, all of which shape a brighter future.

With sincere appreciation and excitement for the road ahead,

Kelley Lindquist,
President | Artspace Projects, Inc.

2022 Year in Review

Because of You

Artspace provides affordable, sustainable homes across the country for thousands of artists and their families, as well as space for small, creative businesses to flourish.
