

JUNETEENTH

CELEBRATE

FREEDOM

POP-UP EVENT
AT THE AMBASSADOR
THEATER

SAT JUN. 19
1PM - 3PM

AMBASSADOR THEATER
4604 LIBERTY HEIGHTS AVE.
BALTIMORE, MD 21207

Join us outside of the Ambassador Theater on Juneteenth for a music-filled out-door, pop-up event!

Live Music

Enjoy traditional African drumming and music by DJ Huxtable from various musical eras to recognize and celebrate African American Music Month and the Juneteenth holiday.

Share Memories & New Visions

A videographer will be on hand to tape testimonials from community residents who wish to share their Ambassador stories and visions for this new community art and cultural center. This event is being curated by Dance Baltimore and hosted by Artspace Projects, the developer of the Ambassador Theater, to commemorate this important national holiday.

artspace

About the Ambassador Redevelopment Effort

The Ambassador redevelopment effort to create a new community art and cultural center out of the vacant historic theater has received funding support from the Mayor and City Council, the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland Legislative Capital Bonds Bill, Pimlico Community Development Authority (PCDA), Baltimore Community Foundation, and Preservation Maryland. To learn more about the project visit www.artspace.org/ambassador